

You are Cordially Invited to a Panel Discussion & Breakfast

Safety, Health and Well-being in the Workplace

Sustainable Models in New York and in the Global Market

Mount
Sinai

Selikoff Centers for Occupational Health

Welcome

Natalia Quintavalle

Consul General
Consulate General of Italy
in New York

Panel Discussion

Roberto Lucchini, MD

Director
Occupational & Environmental Medicine, Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai

Maurilio Missere, MD

Occupational Health Team Director
Ferrari, Bologna, Italy

This program will interest business leaders operating or seeking to expand in New York. Learn how comprehensive workplace safety and health programs reduce injury and illness, increase productivity, and reduce costs. Integrating preventive solutions such as ergonomics and injury prevention, mindfulness, and stress reduction with traditional occupational medicine programs gives businesses a competitive advantage in New York. A presentation on the automaker Ferrari's experience will be highlighted as a comparative model.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2016

8:30 a.m. – 10:00 a.m.

Consulate General of Italy
690 Park Avenue
New York, NY 10065

RSVP by February 4
carla.azar@mssm.edu